GUIDELINES FOR DESIGNING ASSESSMENT TASKS

1. Assignment

Assignment is generally based on the concepts covered in the class and is directed towards developing reading/practicing habits amongst the students and sharpening their analytic skills. Assignment may be based on a case, a review of a book or a movie or based on learning contract, thematic map, simulation or review based on field or industrial visit or may be based on writing of a journal, report, essay, paper, documentation, drossier writing etc. or management of an event or participation in an event.

2. Test (Surprise Test)

In certain courses, knowledge of students is tested through written tests. Students are assigned different questions and are evaluated on the basis of written test. Tests may be based on problems, algorithm, code, situation or multiple-choice questions (MCQ) as per the requirement of the course.

3. Blog Writing

Considering the requirement of the program and the course, blog writing may be assigned as one of the non-graded academic tasks. Students should be encouraged to participate in this blog activity to improve their writing skills.

4. Design Problem/Studio Work

A design problem as an academic task is given to develop and improve designing skills of the students. A well-defined design problem helps in bringing out imagination and creativity among the students which is an essential trait of a skilled person. It gives experiential learning and make students more logical and analytical. Every design problem will be evaluated on rubrics-based assessment based on different criteria and scales of assessment pattern.

5. Discussion Forum

Group threaded discussions help cultivate assertiveness among the students. Further through group discussions, students learn to carry an idea, think critically about the opportunities and challenges in a particular situation, appreciate the thoughts and ideas pondered by their peers and help increasing level of confidence. Threaded discussions also prepare students for job interviews. Group discussion may be based on a case, situation, news etc.

6. Portfolio

Wherever students are required to work creatively they may be asked to make a portfolio of their work and the portfolio be evaluated on the basis of concept, creativity, innovation etc. Portfolios may be the graded ones depending upon the need of the program. Every portfolio is graded on the basis of rubrics.

7. Presentation

Presentations increase the level of confidence in the students. Presentations are generally based on cases, situations and assignments. Presentation can be individual or group based. It may be in the form of a seminar, public speaking, paper presentation, poster presentation etc. It helps in enhancing the knowledge, building confidence, enhancement of public speaking skills and in enhancement of analytic skills. Every presentation if graded will be evaluated on the basis of rubrics only.

8. Project

A project can be a live project, mini project, simulation-based project and design project, project such as designing of website or creation of garments or a small working assignment. Students are expected to be foresighted, think critically and evaluate the situation in hand in totality. Through projects, students learn to handle a situation and they learn to appreciate relative importance of different factors affecting the value of the project. Project as an academic task is a complete assignment which incorporates almost all the concepts studied in the class. If for accomplishment of any project lab work is the pre-requisite then lab work should be completed during normal working hours of the University.

9. Quiz

Quiz is usually designed as a set of MCQ type questions which must be framed smartly in order to let student think about answering the same. The quiz questions will be the blended with some set of descriptive queries, some numerical based and some analytical MCQ type questions. Some questions may also be framed as designed for competitive exams like GATE, UGC-NET etc. Some questions based on some animated video clips may also be designed.

10. Open Book Examination

To remove rote learning and more superficial application of knowledge the questions will be devised for students to answer in a more analytical and critical way thus encouraging high order thinking skills. Questions will assess the student's ability of comprehension, interpretation and application of knowledge. The questions are not directly asked from any source like textbooks, internet question banks, so the students will not be able to find the answers in the textbook but require referring to the books, notes and other reading material for concept clearing, references etc. The student will require a deep knowledge of the course content, organized notes and a systematic way to find content quickly.

11. Personal Learning Environment

This is a creative space for the students to explore and hone their ability to apply knowledge to create new content adding to their portfolio. The English student will do creative writing in the form of Poetry/Short Story/Blog/Article Writing, the psychology student will do a Documentary Analysis and write an article or attempt Case Writing. The liberal arts students will attempt from a wide range including Creative Writing/ Documentary Analysis/Economic Analysis/E-Magazine on Socially Relevant Issue/Live Project/Case Study/ Article Writing/Participate in Model United Nations/Toastmaster Competition or any other creative activity approved by the faculty of that course. The evaluation will be on the originality, novelty and freshness in imagination of the idea and its presentation.

12. Term Paper

Term paper may be a short review research paper/field problem/case study. Students are required to gather information assimilate it, draw inferences and present a report. Students are evaluated on the basis of a written report. Following points must be kept in mind during the preparation of the term paper:

- A sample list of topics of the term paper is suggested by the Master Subject Coordinator while creating the course on CU LMS. It is not an exhaustive list and the instructor can add, delete or modify the topics of term paper as per requirement.
- The course instructor must mention 15-20 topics for the term paper and the course instructor has the liberty to use those 15-20 topics for the whole class or add some new topics.
- A particular term paper topic can be given in a group. Group size should not exceed 5 members with clarity of each member's role.
- A term paper is to be allotted latest by the end of 4th week of teaching and should be due at least two weeks before the last day of classes.
- Complete Term Paper should comprise of 1000-1500 words only.

GUIDELINES FOR WRITING A TERM PAPER

A term paper is an innovative course-specific activity to be completed by students as a minor research project. The students are required to gather, assimilate and analyze the data for a problem allotted by the teacher. A term paper is a task assigned to the student in the 4th week of the semester, the submission of which is due at least two weeks before the last day of classes.

The procedure for writing such a Term Paper consists of the following steps:

1. Finding Sources Of Materials

The information related to the topic can be collected from various primary and secondary sources, depending upon the nature of the topic. For the secondary sources one can visit library, search books and various websites. Then start writing the material related to the topic of your term paper. One can make reference cards of these by placing these cards according to the topic. The references should be written in following format.

- Article in a journal Verma, R., Dogra, B. and Khari, N. (2007), Dainik Bhaskar-The Punjab Launch, Indian Journal of Marketing, Vol. XIV, No.2, pp. 21-34.
- From book Gautam Prashant (2007), Sustainable Tourism Development, Indus Publication- New Delhi, pp. 31-40.
- From Web Population of India. [Online] available at:
<http://www.indianchild.com/populationofindia.html> > accessed on 24.09.2008]

2. Gathering Notes

The student should scan through the sources collected, locate the useful material and then make good notes of it, including quotes and information for footnotes so that you don't have to refer the sources again. The notes must be taken accurately so that it does not distort the author's meanings. One should collect only those things that will support the objective of your term paper, ignoring other facts or opinions.

3. Discussion With The Teacher/Among The Group Members

Before going with the detailed writing, one must discuss the topic along with the material collected with the teacher or with the peer group members through conversations so as to ensure that one is going on a right track.

4. Outlining The Paper

The purpose of an outline is to help students think through the topic carefully and organize it logically before writing. Check the outline to make sure that the points covered flow logically from one to the other.

5. Writing The First Draft

Start writing now, write as per the outline. Include an Introduction, a Body and a Conclusion.

- Introduction (Tell what you are going to say)- State the thesis and the purpose of the term paper clearly. State the basic purpose of writing the paper along with the steps of approaching the topic. Explain briefly the major points to be covered in the paper.
- Body (Say it)- This is where one presents the arguments to support the thesis.
- Conclusion (Tell in the end what you've said)- Here one has to summarize the arguments. One should explain the reasons to support the particular conclusion.

6. Editing The Paper

The first draft is ready at this stage so,

- Read it thoroughly, to be sure that the language is proper and that the content flow is appropriate.
- Cross check spelling and grammatical errors.
- Cross check references, footnotes and punctuation.
- Make sure that the tables and graphs are in proper form and are self-explanatory.

EVALUATION SYSTEM

Letter Grades will be awarded to the students as indicated below. Each letter grade indicates the level of performance in the course and grade point for the purpose of computing the SGPA and CGPA.

Letter Grade	Performance	Grade Point
A+	Outstanding	10
A	Excellent	9
B+	Very Good	8
B	Good	7
C+	Average	6
C	Below Average	5
D	Marginal	4
E	Exposed	0
F	Poor	0
I	Incomplete	0
X	Not Registered	0

Grades 'A+' To 'D' Are Called Pass Grade

E Grade: This Grade is awarded to the student who has attended 75% of the scheduled lectures of the subject but is unable to appear in the final exam. The student is required to appear in the final exam in the relevant semester when it is offered after paying the examination fee. The student can also choose to get the grade based on the marks obtained in various internal evaluations.

F Grade: This Grade is awarded to the student who has attended 75% of the scheduled lectures of the subject but scores very low marks in the subject. In this case, a student has to appear in the examination again in the relevant semester after paying the examination fee.

I Grade: This Grade is awarded to the student who are unable to fulfill the attendance requirement of 75% of the scheduled lectures of the respective subject. In this case, the student has to register again in that subject/paper when it is offered in the relevant semester or Summer Term after paying the requisite paper-wise fee.

X Grade: The 'X' Grade is allocated against such subject(s) for which the student(s) fails to register or opted to drop during the semester for the course scheme.

Cumulative Grade Point Average

CGPA is the weighted average of all the grades awarded to the student since their entry into the University, up to and including the latest semester.

CGPA = $\frac{\sum C_i G_i}{\sum C_i}$ = Credits for the paper

G_i = Grade points of the grade earned in the paper

The Salient Features Of The Evaluation System Are Listed Below

1. The question papers for the final exams are generated automatically through software from question banks prepared and vetted by well-qualified paper setters.
2. The evaluation of the final semester examination is done through Table Marking at the University. Question-wise evaluation is done to maintain uniformity.
3. 10% of the answer books are randomly evaluated by outside experts to ensure fairness and equity.
4. The evaluated answer books are shown to the students. The students check and sign the answer books for having agreed to the evaluation.
5. In case a student disagrees with the evaluation, they can get the answer sheet reviewed by the Evaluation Review Board constituted for the same purpose, on payment of the prescribed fee. No change in marks is done by any individual teacher. The process is valid on the day of paper showing of regular examinations only.

6. The decision of the Evaluation Review Board is final.
7. If the increase in marks recommended by the Evaluation Review Board is more than 10% of the maximum marks for the subject, the fee submitted for the review is refunded to the students.
8. Final Internal Evaluation is displayed by the Departments/Institutes, before the submission to the University.
9. The total marks obtained in the Internal and External Examination are submitted to the Office of Controller of Examination for conversion into Grades based on the relative grading system.
10. The Grade is awarded to the obtained marks in each paper using Normal Distribution, without any subjectivity.
11. A student getting less than 35% of the highest mark obtained in the paper shall be awarded an 'F' Grade.
12. A student scoring 50% or more of the highest marks scored in the paper shall not get an 'F' Grade.
13. A student getting marks between 35% to 50% of the highest marks can get any grade including F depending upon the average marks and Standard Deviation of the class. For example, if the maximum marks for a subject are 100 and maximum marks scored by student(s) in the subject are 100, then the student getting any score below 35 will be awarded F Grade; students getting scores equal to or more than 50 will not get an F Grade and the students scoring marks between 35 to 49.99 can get any grade including F Grade.
14. The final grades of the semester will be displayed along with SGPA (Semester Grade Point Average) at the time of declaration of results on student's CUIMS account.

STUDENT SUCCESS INITIATIVES BY DCPD

Symposiums by Career Experts from Various Departments to Guide Students

DCPD aims to ensure that continuous guidance is provided to all the students throughout their journey at Chandigarh University. For continued support, various seminars are held by career experts at regular intervals to guide the students better.

Career Planning Seminars

Specialized events hosted by DCPD for new students to shed some light on various career prospects by liaising with the industry experts. Students are guided at length about the possible options from TPP to GRE/GMAT, UGC-NET, IELTS, IAS, Higher Studies and more which are available and certainly help in curtailing their incertitude about career choices.

Alumni/Placed Peers Mentoring Sessions

DCPD has a highly modern approach towards learning. Keeping this approach in mind, the department hosts regular Perspective and Rendezvous with Alumni having Peer/Alumni as guest speakers of the University. These Alumni/Peers share their success mantra with the students and explain how to prepare for the interviews and guide students on how to achieve their goals. This hands-on experience helps our students to successfully plan their moves while taking their first steps towards a professional career.

AI-Enabled Mock Interview

DCPD conducts AI-enabled interviews to help students evaluate themselves through an easy to use, intuitive interface. The students must ensure that they provide correct email IDs to DCPD to ensure there is no issue in logging in for the said interview.

Topper's Felicitation Event

To encourage students to excel in the areas of Soft Skills and CUCATs, the department takes a unique initiative and felicitates toppers across all sections and groups of TPP registered students. Student who excel in performing in various activities in the sessions for the semester are awarded Soft Skills Top Performers Badge while the student who excel in their CUCAT are awarded a certificate and goodie.

TPP CR Meetings

To gauge the performance of the students across various groups, understand their concerns or issues, resolve their queries and provide them information about upcoming DCPD events, meetings are convened by Executive Director, DCPD with the leaders of the groups, i.e. the TPP CRs every month. The meetings also act as a platform for the students to openly share their feedback on the ongoing classes and give suggestions for various DCPD offerings.

CAREER OPTION REGISTRATION

DCPD offers two distinct structured career pathways to support students throughout their academic journey.

TPP – For Pre-Final Year Students

Designed specifically for engineering students from their 4th semester and for all other programs in their pre-final year, Training and Placement Program (TPP) focuses on skill enhancement, aptitude training and interview readiness for placement opportunities.

TPP is a paid course, for which the registration and classes details are as follows

To opt for TPP, it is mandatory for the students to appear in AMCAT Test as and when scheduled for them. Moreover, a Career Planning Seminar is organized to give them insights on TPP and various other competitive courses available on the campus. The information about both the AMCAT and Career Planning Seminar is provided to students well in advance. Failure to appear in the AMCAT or the absence from Career Planning Seminar could result in the student being debarred from TPP. Such students are thus not permitted to opt for TPP. They can, however, select any other competitive course if they wish to.

The students are given sufficient time to pay the TPP fee. If a student fails to pay the TPP fee within the stipulated time, they have to pay a fine along with the fee, applicable on the date of payment as pre-defined by the management. No student is allowed to select TPP and pay the fee after this predefined window period. It is important to note that any partial payment for any course does not allow a student to sit in their respective classes. Therefore, the full fee of the selected course should be paid in the given time else the name of the student will automatically be struck off from the said course and the student will be moved from the departmental subject as his status will change to Non-TPP.

SECONDARY PATHWAY – OPEN FROM DAY ONE

This pathway is open to all students starting from the first day of their degree program. It provides early access to career guidance, foundational skill development and exposure to various competitive exams. It also provides career options which help students make informed decisions right from the beginning of their academic journey.

1. Higher Studies

For the students who are interested in pursuing higher studies after their course completion at the University, DCPD helps achieve the goal by offering comprehensive training to crack entrance exams such as for CAT or IELTS. 2. Government/Public Sector Jobs

For the students who have dreams of serving the nation and want to bring a change in the society, DCPD offers customized training on the key skill areas required to crack the exams. Extensive in-house training is provided.

5. Cultural Exchanges and Project Semester
6. International Transfer Program (ITP)

1. Semester Exchange Programs

Semester Exchange is a great way to understand a new environment and see the subject course in a way students would have never been exposed to back home. It is truly an opportunity of a lifetime to spend a semester of a degree abroad. Taking part in this semester-long program increases employability and supplements the value of a degree by exposing different cultures. Students are taken for two intakes – January intake and September intake every year.

Under semester exchange programs (Europe, Asia, South Africa, and South America), students don't need to pay tuition fees abroad, fees to be paid at CU only. This brings the total cost to Rs. 5-6 Lacs (depending upon countries) inclusive of accommodation, meals, airfare, visa, insurance and misc. expenses.

Under semester abroad/fee-paying programs (to USA, UK, Australia), a reduced semester fee has to be paid to an international university, no fee to be paid at CU. Part-time work is allowed. This brings the total cost to approx. Rs. 8-10 Lacs (based on university tuition charges) inclusive of international university tuition fees, accommodation, meals and airfare, visa, insurance and misc. expenses.

Several government scholarships are also available for semester exchange programs.

Highlights/Prerequisites Of Semester Exchange Programs

- Students get the chance to study abroad for one semester in which subjects of the course are available in our partner universities. (CGPA required 6.5 minimum, no backlogs, no detain).
- The programs require the student to have a good academic record, i.e. these programs are career oriented and provide the certification to the student.
- Seats are limited in the semester program.
- The student will have to bear the charges for airfare, visa, cost of living, etc. for the full semester.
- Semester Exchange/Abroad Partners are present in UK, USA, Russia, Thailand, Taiwan, Spain, France, Canada, South Korea, Mexico, Belgium, Poland, Australia and many more nations.

2. Profile Building Programs

Summer programs offer students a great way to learn beyond most of their college curriculum. These programs offer the best of both worlds. Exclusive summer programs in the USA, CANADA, UK and Europe will cost around Rs 2.5-3.5 Lacs (inclusive of expenses, accommodation, meals, programs fees, visa, insurance and air ticket cost). Premium inclusive programs in Asia (Thailand, Vietnam, Russia, Taiwan, etc.) costs Rs 40,000- 1.5 Lacs.

These programs help the student to progress into the top-ranked universities to pursue higher degree. Students get the chance to study abroad to grow in international universities.

They are provided programs even without GRE/GMAT.

Students are provided scholarships from various partner universities. Even the pathway courses are provided to them with optional practical training:

Students are also immersed in different cultures from around the world, connect with industry experts and build lifelong relationships.

7. International Transfer Program (ITP)

We have initiated an International Transfer Program (ITP) under which students are recruited directly for International Programs. This opportunity allows a student to complete an initial part of the degree (1 or 2 years) at Chandigarh University and transfer to a foreign country to get a complete degree from a foreign university. The program allows participants to live, work and learn in another country for some time. The service fee for CGE (except ITP) is INR 5000/- and the service fee for ITP is INR 10,000/- (please note that both the amounts mentioned above are non-refundable). The service fee include (admission application, visa documentation, interaction with university representatives, officials, assistance with insurance, assistance with air- ticketing, assistance with pick-up, assistance with accommodation, etc.) This doesn't include the foreign university application fee or visa fee. Also, the students need to register and start the application for any program at least 4 months before the beginning of the program. If a student isn't successful in getting the visa, they can continue at Chandigarh University. For further details please go through the website:

<https://www.cuchd.in/international/>

USP of the Programs

1. Photocopy of Passport
2. Academic DMCs (10th & 12th) and Diploma/Degree
